

Trekking Desolación

Vicente Pérez Rosales National Park. Volcán Osorno, Petrohué rapids, and Emerald lake.

Program

We will pick you at your hotel in the morning and drive bordering the south side of the Lake Llanquihue entering the National Park we will stop at the Petrohue rapids to see the amazing white waters flowing. Continue to our starting point of the trek next to the Emerald lake. The whole trek last for about 6 hours and depending on the people's pace. Time to see the wonderful mountains surrounding the lakes and also enjoy a well deserved box lunch. Drive back to your hotel. Arrive at 18 hs approx.

Starts and ends at:	9 am Puerto Varas or Pto Montt. 6 pm.
Location:	P.N. Vicente Perez Rosales, Lake District, South of Chile.
Duration:	9 hours. 1 hour and 45 minutes drive from Pto Varas Hours Walk: 6 hours/Plus the visit to the saltos. W.Distance: 11 kms/7 milles
Difficulty level:	Medium- high. Terrain: gravel. In the shade and sun. Mostly up hill and undulating with a good down hill to the lake Esmeralda.
Transportation:	Private vehicle.
Equipment to bring:	Water, warm clothes according to weather and time of the year. Trekking shoes, rain jacket, sun and skin protection (sunglasses, hat).
Safety:	Emergency equipment and first aid kit.
Included:	Entrance fee to Saltos de Petrohué, private transport, private guide with Wildernes First responder Certificate, box lunch, knowledgeable in native flora and fauna

Patagonia Trails. Puerto Varas. Lake District Chile.
+56 9 58330434 reservas@patagoniatrails.cl

